Table of contents

Lukas Eibensteiner & Robert Hesselbach
Introduction 7

Part I: Current Issues in Romance Linguistics

Eva Martha Eckkrammer & Sandra Steidel (Mannheim)
Scapegoating in Telegram Groups: A Contrastive Analysis of Topoi and Rhetorical Strategies of Anti-Semitism in German and French Messages 27

Robert Hesselbach (Erlangen-Nürnberg)
Analyzing Linguistic Patterns in the Social Media Discourse of Juan Guaidó and Nicolás Maduro during the 2019 Political Conflict in Venezuela 59

Miriam Zapf (Erlangen-Nürnberg)
"Stop à cette ineptie d'écriture inclusive. Stop à la dictature des idéologies stupides !" – A Critical Analysis of Twitter Comments against Gender-Inclusive Language 87

Pascale Erhart (Strasbourg)
"One does not simply bstell e Flammküeche ohne Ziwwle": Sociolinguistic Issues of Multilingual Computer Mediated Communication in Alsace 117

Part II: Current Issues in Foreign Language Education

Elke Höfler (Graz)
Learning Romance Languages with Influencers: Mission (im)possible? 149

Diana Vesga, Felix Röhricht & Lukas Eibensteiner (Jena)
Exploring Multimedia Learning Principles in Explainer Videos for Foreign Language Instruction 173

Lukas Fiedler & Benjamin Meisnitzer (Leipzig)
Potential of YouTube Explainer Videos in Learning and Teaching Portuguese as a Foreign Language 201

Anne-Marie Lachmund (Potsdam)
Grande Littérature Meets Social Media: Transmedial and Transcultural Approaches to Fostering Sustainable Reading Motivation and Digital Discourse Literacies 225