Table of Contents

Doris Löhr, Comfort Beyang Oben Ojongnkpot, Taiwo Oloruntoba-Oju, Bert van Pinxteren, Ayodele Yusuff
Local languages, global futures: Language, learning, and sustainability in Africa 7

Feyi Ademola-Adeoye
Deploying indigenous Nigerian languages for communicating scientific knowledge: Issues, challenges, and prospects 19

Adédoyinsọ́lá Ọmọ́wùnmí Ẹlẹ́shın
Terminology development: Panacea for aspects of disentanglement with African futures 43

Emilisco Jones Enoachuo
African medicine and indigenous knowledge transmission in African languages 63

Comfort Beyang Oben Ojongnkpot
Bridging the digital divide of Ejagham: Challenges and opportunities 77

Sarita Monjane Henriksen
Mozambican languages in the public sphere: An opportunity to be seized 99

Tomoe Noguchi
Role of Mother-tongue in primary education: Focusing on the experiences of contemporary hunter-gatherers 123

Omusula W. Omuholo
Towards a language reconceptualization of education in Africa:
A review of the film Otis Janam.....147

Bert van Pinxteren
Future trajectories for multilingual education in Africa: Longer term policy options 175

Author and editor biographies.....197