

Table of Contents

Doris Löhr, Comfort Beyang Oben Ojongnkpot, Taiwo Oloruntoba-Oju, Bert van Pinxteren, Ayodele Yusuff Local languages, global futures: Language, learning, and sustainability in Africa.....	7
Feyi Ademola-Adeoye Deploying indigenous Nigerian languages for communicating scientific knowledge: Issues, challenges, and prospects	19
Adédoyinsólá Omówùnmí Eléshin Terminology development: Panacea for aspects of disentanglement with African futures	43
Emilisco Jones Enoachuo African medicine and indigenous knowledge transmission in African languages	63
Comfort Beyang Oben Ojongnkpot Bridging the digital divide of Ejagham: Challenges and opportunities	77
Sarita Monjane Henriksen Mozambican languages in the public sphere: An opportunity to be seized	99
Tomoe Noguchi Role of Mother-tongue in primary education: Focusing on the experiences of contemporary hunter-gatherers	123

Omusula W. Omuholo

Towards a language reconceptualization of education in Africa:

A review of the film Otis Janam.....147

Bert van Pinxteren

Future trajectories for multilingual education in Africa: Longer term policy options175

Author and editor biographies.....197